

Angela Santero serves as the founder and Board Chair of the Goretti Group. She has over 20 years of professional leadership experience serving as a Naval Officer and a Project Management Professional in a multi-billion-dollar consulting firm. She has over 20 years of church ministry experience serving as a Navy shipboard religious leader, a respect life volunteer, a fulltime missionary, a young adult coordinator, a nonprofit director, and a children's liturgy teacher. Her faith has been nourished through the family rosary, her parish life, Holy Scripture, Spiritual Direction, Eucharistic Adoration, the Cursillo Movement, Ignatian Spiritual Exercises and the Sacraments of Baptism, Reconciliation, the Eucharist, and Holy Matrimony.

Angela received the call to found the Goretti Group in front of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament after years of discerning a vocation to the religious life. She worked full time in the ministry from 2005-2009, during which time she delivered 100s talks and retreats to over 20,000 youth, young adults and parents nationally on a variety of subjects related to the joy of pure love and our noble identity in God, Our Father and King. Prior to full time ministry, Angela served on Bishop Emeritus Robert Brom's pastoral council and was certified in Young Adult Ministry.

Angela is the bride of Dr. Paul Santero and the proud mother of Rafael and Therese, whom she enjoys homeschooling. She has a deep love for the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Blessed Mother, dark chocolate and almost any kind of sport.
