

John Rumpza grew up in St Paul, MN. He holds an undergraduate degree from Benedictine College in Business Administration and Marketing. He initially came to San Diego for a work assignment but stayed after experiencing God's love and healing through the work of the Goretti Group. In 2014, he was invited to join the board during a time of rebuilding. Using his marketing and consulting background, he assisted Angela Santero in developing a new vision and building a team to achieve it.

Later, he received a call to discern the priesthood and entered seminary in St. Paul, MN. From there, he continues to serve on the board, primarily in a role of spiritual support, also assisting where needed in marketing and strategy.
